What is included with your wedding packages?

A good selection of image files will be delivered through a password protected online gallery where they can easily be accessed by friends and family. A USB drive will be sent with the pictures to the Bride and Groom.

What is included with your non-wedding packages?

The image files will be delivered through a password protected online gallery where they can easily be accessed by friends and family.

Do you have insurance and extra equipment?

If your venue needs a certificate of insurance, I can easily supply that. I will arrive with a multitude of lenses and gear to be prepared for any instances of equipment malfunction or failure.

If we decide that we are a good fit for each other, then I will send you a contract which goes into more details and specifics.

Payment Options

We accept cash, credit, and checks. Sales tax is included in the packages.

There is a $75 deposit on weddings. The remaining balance is due 15 days prior to the wedding.

Do you edit the photos that are taken?

Yes, any photos that are provided will be edited.

What rights do I have to the digital files?

You have the right to reprint/download images whenever you want to do so. However, you may not sell the images for profit or have them published without written consent.

Are the digital files watermarked?

The files will not contain any watermarks.

If you have any questions please don't hesitate to contact us.

We look forward to hearing from you!
